Dear Mary Lou,

We did have fun in gym and choir, you've got to admit. There were times we (Gymnastics & I) didn't know if you were snubbing us or not. You changed your mood so many times.

We've been (her) friends for quite a few years. As John's will never be the same without us (neither) (will) Kilo West.)

I hope to see you after graduation '68 ('69-'70). Well still hope to see you. Good luck and the best of everything to you. (I know everything'll be fine. You Blacks do it right.)

Love,
Cindy

A student enters high school,
 Frightened, hopeful, searching for himself.
 It is here that he begins to discover his true identity,
 What is to be his image for the rest of his life.
 He leaves school a slightly different person,
 One who is a little more confident,
 a little more knowledgeable.
 He ventures on to new things,
 A job, another school, a home and family of his own.
 Whatever he becomes, whatever he makes of himself,
 A part of him has been shaped by the forces from which he comes.
 He has been patterned by his teachers, his courses, his activities.
 He has embarked upon a unique path, one which he alone will tread.
 He has begun to realize himself.

The school itself -
 A brick building,
 a classroom, a lunchroom, a gymnasium.
 Yet something more than a building,
 something besides empty rooms,
 the school presents an opportunity,
 a chance,
 for growth and learning.
 There are the teachers,
 the equipment,
 the other students,
 that make a mere building come alive.

ENGLISH

Increased team teaching on the senior level and coordination of the U. S. History classes marked progress in English skills and techniques. Increased interest in special courses resulted in two semesters of creative writing, a new debate course, and a larger debate workshop. This year brought with it a complete review on each class level of the basic building blocks of an English background - grammar and vocabulary, as well as an introduction to the world's great literature, from Shakespeare to Thoreau.

SOCIAL STUDIES

To look at ourselves, as a nation and as individuals, is the aim of the Social Studies Department. The facts are presented in history courses, psychology, economics, and sociology, as well as in the newly created humanities seminar. We draw our own conclusions - form our own opinions. Through the study of other peoples and their cultures, we try to understand them; for to understand them is to understand ourselves and our own motives.

Double Laboratory Periods Aid Discovery

.SCIENCE

All laboratory courses have double periods two days a week to provide time for the valuable experiments needed to rediscover facts and apply them. Two Science Seminars a day provide incentive for individual discovery and instruction in such arts as glassblowing. Many phases of the Science Seminar program are conducted in conjunction with the Industrial Arts Department. An entirely new second year Biology course is being offered, and an APP Physics class made its appearance for the first time this year.

ALL LABORATORY COURSES HAVE DOUBLE PERIODS TWO DAYS A WEEK TO PROVIDE TIME FOR THE VALUABLE EXPERIMENTS NEEDED TO REDISCOVER FACTS AND APPLY THEM.

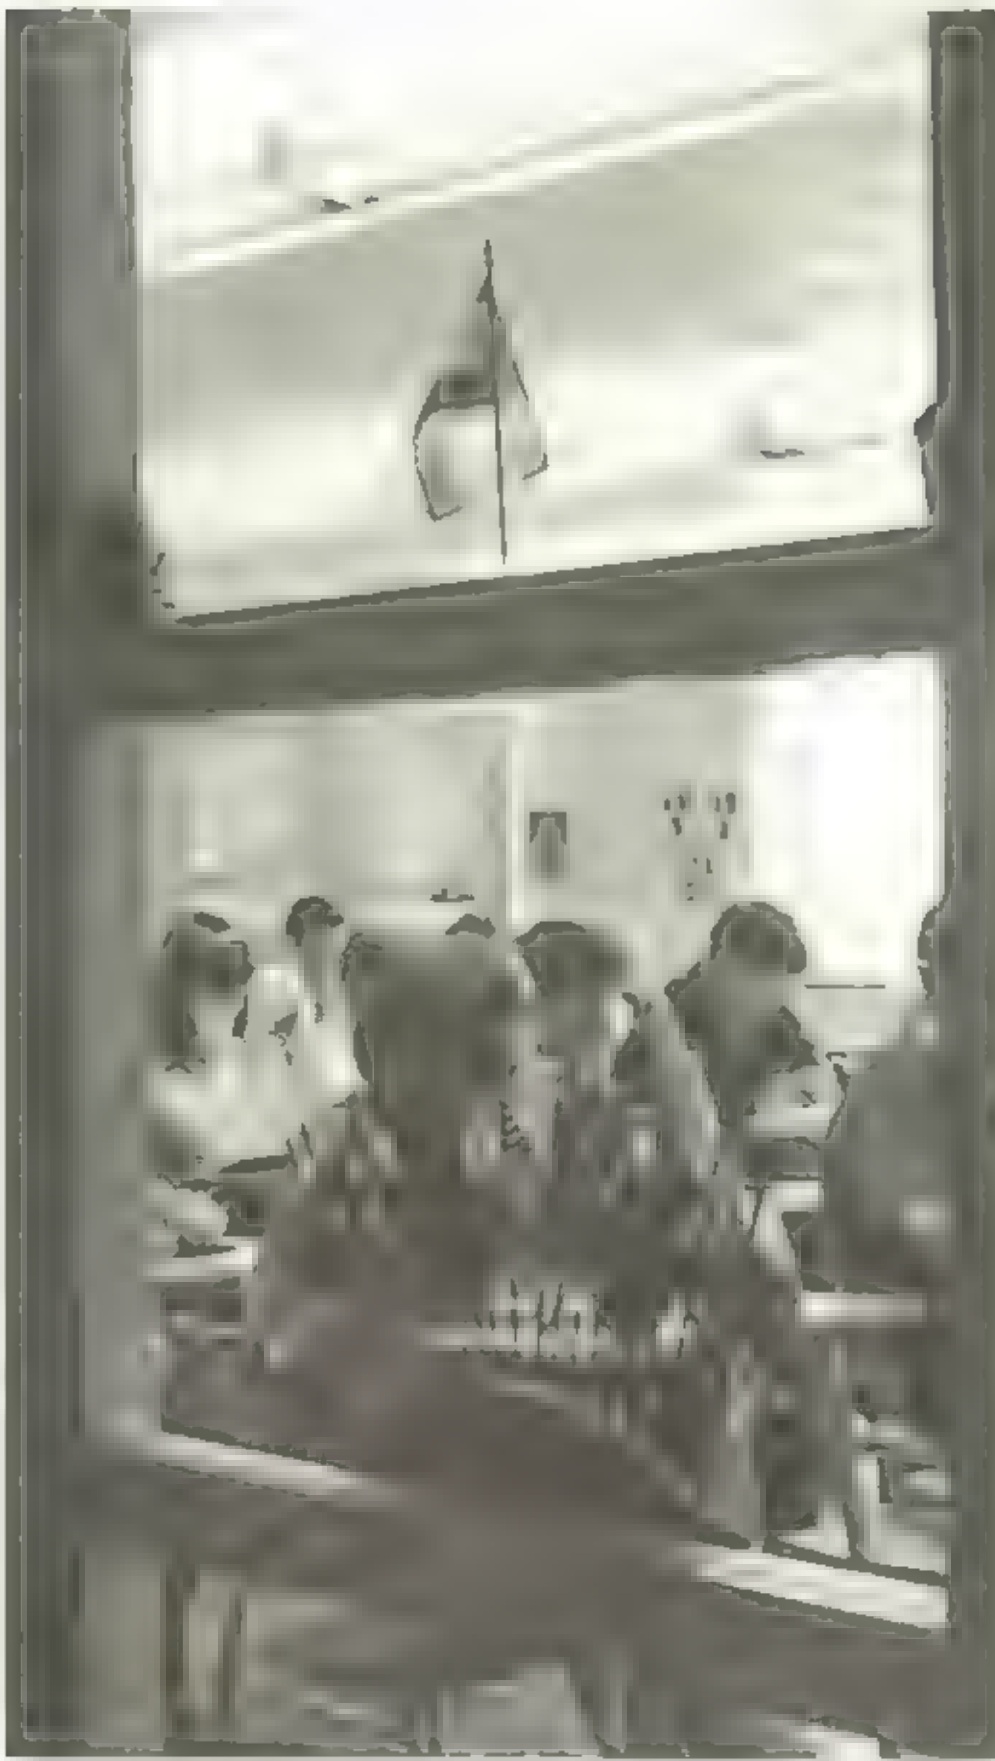

R. Rosenberg demonstrates the time-saving method on the slide rule.

MATHEMATICS

Logic and reasoning, in the search for truth, are the essence of mathematics. Recent advances in the field of mathematics resulted in new courses offered such as this year's Introduction to Computers. Last year's new courses were expanded - such as the Analytic Geometry and Calculus Course as a permanent class to follow Advanced Algebra and Trigonometry classes. A highlight of the year is the annual state-wide Math contest, a challenge in ingenuity and original thinking.

Math classes make extensive use of the overhead projector.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

To study not only how to speak a language, but also the culture of the people who speak that language, is to attempt to create understanding among the peoples of the world. Through foreign language films, film strips on foreign countries, extra readings in addition to the texts, foreign recorded tapes and extensive use of the language laboratory, the power of language is shown as a tool for world peace and understanding. Foreign language study halls provide aid for the serious language student. Language is today's vehicle for a better understanding in tomorrow's world.

Range of Domestic Skills Widens

HOME ARTS

Sewing, cooking, and home management are taught in the Home Arts Department to prepare girls for the time when they will manage their own homes. With the development of these domestic skills, each girl gains knowledge and enrichment which she will value all of her life. With an ever increasing range of skills and interests, a third year clothing course has been added, as well as a housing and home furnishing course which is taught in the drafting room of the Industrial Arts Department.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

To achieve manual dexterity for a career in our mechanical age, to teach, to train, and to challenge is the task of the Industrial Arts Department. Auto mechanics, electricity, printing, and industrial drawing all train students for the future. Science Seminars are held in conjunction with the Science Department and concern such subjects as glass-blowing and computer analysis. Amateur short-wave radio operators have contacted many countries all over the world. Industrial arts not only prepares young men for the future, but enriches their daily lives.

Creativity—Key to Fine Arts

T Marfin pantomimes dialing a telephone in Drama Workshop

FINE ARTS

Creativity is the essence of the fine arts. The means and results of creativity are discipline, sensitivity, and personal satisfaction and enjoyment in the Music and Art Departments at Niles West. Our band provides enthusiasm at football and basketball games and sturdily marches in parades. The choruses, orchestra, and bands present spring and winter Festivals. An annual art show introduced the works of the art students to the rest of the student body - in the form of sculpture, three-dimensional figures, and exercises in cloth, wood, and clay. A new dramatics workshop, two drama courses, and a stagecraft workshop develop much of the talent for Pow Wow, the musical, and the spring play.

Business Career Opportunities on Rise

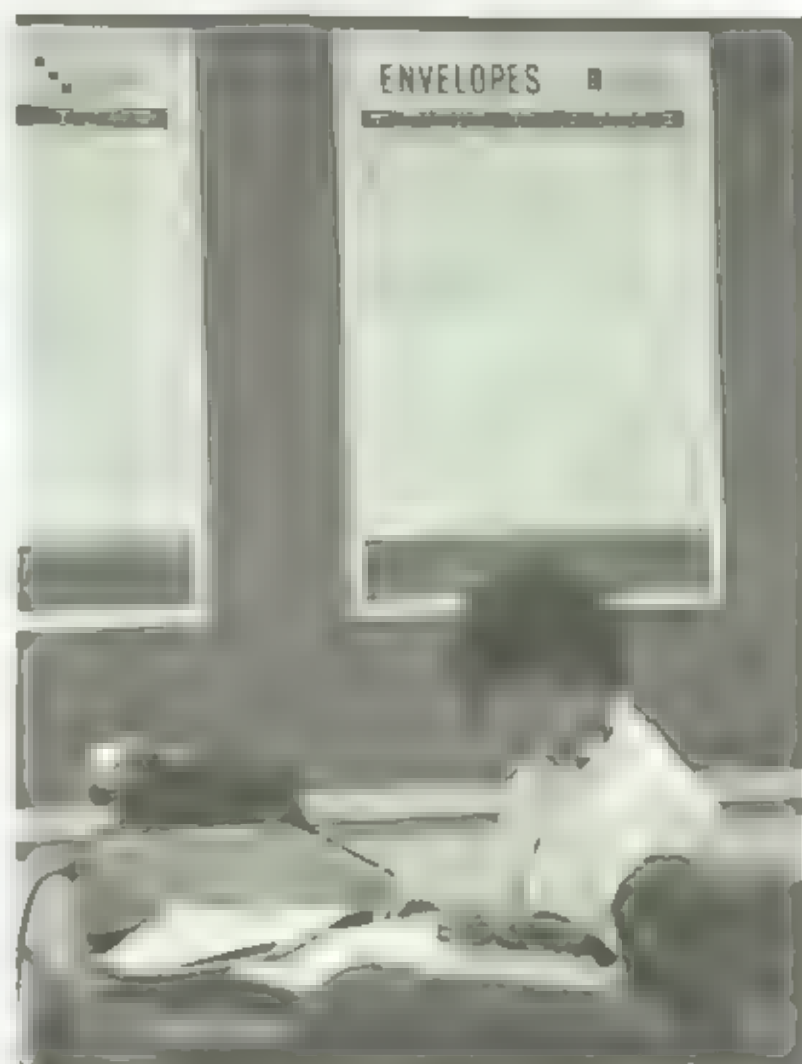

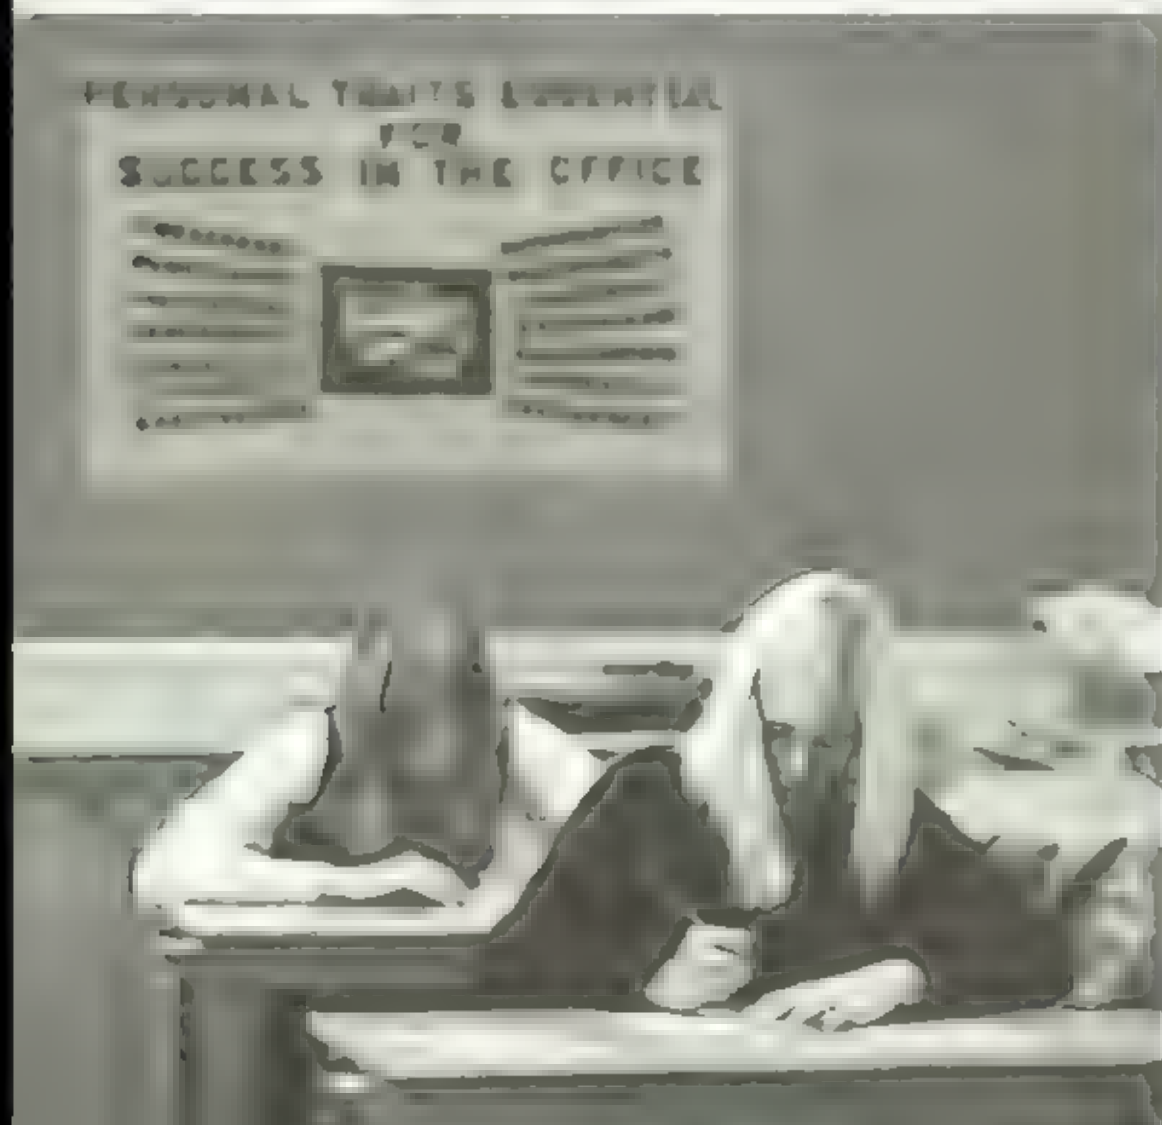

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The clatter and ring of typewriters in the business education wing is indicative of the busy and vital atmosphere found there. A wide variety of courses, from business law to secretarial practices to sales advertising, offer the latest level of instruction available to the office-bound student. For the college-bound student, invaluable courses such as typing and notehand provide the important preparation for success in higher education.

The importance of safety in driving any vehicle cannot be underestimated. West's driver education program offers each student an opportunity to be trained to cope with any driving situation which might arise. The training program is divided into three phases. The first consists of a classroom study, extended for the first time to eight weeks this year. The second is drive-trainer sessions in which actual driving conditions are synthesized in a classroom. The third is actual practice behind the wheel of an automobile. An increasingly active Safety Council marks this year as a step towards traffic safety.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The goal of Physical Education is to attain a balance of physical and mental fitness. Not only is physical fitness taught at Niles West, but competitive instincts are nourished, a sense of fair play and sportsmanship developed, health and well-being stressed, and the concept of graceful movement established. Mental ability and alertness become second nature through practice in sports, competition, and dance.

\mathbb{R}^n is a vector space over \mathbb{R} with the usual addition and scalar multiplication. The norm on \mathbb{R}^n is defined by $\|x\| = \sqrt{x_1^2 + \dots + x_n^2}$. The inner product on \mathbb{R}^n is defined by $\langle x, y \rangle = x_1 y_1 + \dots + x_n y_n$. The orthogonal group $O(n)$ is the group of linear transformations of \mathbb{R}^n that preserve the inner product. The special orthogonal group $SO(n)$ is the subgroup of $O(n)$ consisting of transformations with determinant 1. The Lie algebra of $SO(n)$ is the space of skew-symmetric matrices, denoted by $\mathfrak{so}(n)$. The adjoint representation of $SO(n)$ is the map $\text{Ad}: SO(n) \rightarrow GL(\mathfrak{so}(n))$ defined by $\text{Ad}_g(X) = gXg^{-1}$. The Killing form on $\mathfrak{so}(n)$ is the symmetric bilinear form defined by $B(X, Y) = \text{tr}(\text{ad}_X \text{ad}_Y)$. The Cartan-Killing classification of simple Lie algebras shows that $\mathfrak{so}(n)$ is a simple Lie algebra for $n \geq 3$. The root system of $\mathfrak{so}(n)$ is the set of non-zero eigenvalues of the adjoint representation. The Weyl group of $\mathfrak{so}(n)$ is the group of symmetries of the root system. The Dynkin diagram of $\mathfrak{so}(n)$ is a graph with n nodes and edges. The Cartan subalgebra of $\mathfrak{so}(n)$ is the maximal abelian subalgebra. The Cartan involution of $\mathfrak{so}(n)$ is the map $\theta: \mathfrak{so}(n) \rightarrow \mathfrak{so}(n)$ defined by $\theta(X) = -X$. The Cartan decomposition of $\mathfrak{so}(n)$ is the direct sum $\mathfrak{so}(n) = \mathfrak{h} \oplus \mathfrak{p}$, where \mathfrak{h} is the Cartan subalgebra and \mathfrak{p} is the orthogonal complement of \mathfrak{h} with respect to the Killing form. The Cartan involution acts as the identity on \mathfrak{h} and as minus the identity on \mathfrak{p} . The Cartan decomposition of $SO(n)$ is the product $SO(n) = H \cdot P$, where H is the maximal compact subgroup and P is the set of positive definite symmetric matrices. The Cartan decomposition of $SO(n)$ is unique up to the choice of the Cartan subalgebra. The Cartan decomposition of $SO(n)$ is used to study the geometry of the symmetric space $SO(n)/H$. The Cartan decomposition of $SO(n)$ is also used in the study of the representation theory of $SO(n)$. The Cartan decomposition of $SO(n)$ is a fundamental tool in the study of Lie groups and Lie algebras.

Physical Fitness Plays Important Role

BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Greek ideal of "a sound mind in a strong body" is one of the major concepts on which the physical education courses are based. Through such sports as basketball, football, baseball, wrestling, volleyball, and swimming, good sportsmanship as well as physical fitness is taught. Strength and endurance are stressed in the sports offered such as track and gymnastics.

Boys engage in physical education activities in the gymnasium.

S.S.O., Niles' Student Service Organization, was more effective than ever. Due to the decrease in the number of monitors, there was less confusion, and thus more efficiency. S.S.O. was divided into three departments: S.S.M. supplied hall monitors, S.S.S.H. took charge of the study halls, and S.S.D. provided special service monitors who worked in the school's offices. S.S.O. sponsored a Christmas party as a reward for the time and hard work put in by the devoted monitors.

PEP CLUB ADDS NEW SPIRIT TO WEST

Pep Club was very active this year as it supported school spirit and sportsmanship. With its greatly increased membership, Pep Club not only provided strong cheering sections at both home and away sports events, but also encouraged the entire student body to actively support their school.

N-CLUB HOLDS BREATHER

Becoming a member of N-Club is one of the highest honors an athlete can achieve. Membership was open only to athletes who earned a major letter in any particular sport. During the past year, N-Club fostered school spirit and encouraged attendance at athletic events. The club also promoted better relations among athletes. This year the organization held a successful all-school dance, the N-Club Breather.

School spirit is essential to all aspects of school life. Constantly striving to inspire such spirit were the Niles West cheerleaders. Whether they led cheers and chants at pep assemblies or demonstrated difficult pom-pom routines at athletic events, the cheerleaders never failed to transfer their vitality and enthusiasm to the entire student body.

A crowd of people—
In the stands.
At a dance
All separate beings,
Yet all with a common goal—
A desire to find an identity.
To realize the self
Each event an opportunity—
To reach that goal.

Though, think that unseasonably cold weather and a streak of bad fortune in Big Red's loss to the Spartans would have been enough to quench the spirit of any avid Indian. 'Not so' (apart from the) veiled the student body, noticeably along with the marching band. Nothing, not even the cold flight of a cold Student Council's float could dull the prevailing atmosphere of enthusiasm. The weekend's activities culminated in a night of gaiety at the dance, Belles and Beaus. It was obvious that, in spite of a little bad luck, the West had won some memorable experiences.

PROJECT SHARE COMES TO WEST

Al Dolnick

Children's Theater, a relatively recent addition to West's Drama Department, now plays to audiences from the entire Chicago-land area. To be more truthful, this group provided entertainment not only for children living within the township, but also for those participating in Project Share. In the short time since it first began to function Children's Theater has developed a reputation for outstanding presentations which can charm and delight children of any age.

SNOW EXTENDS SEMESTER BREAK

The great snow of 67 will be remembered as remarkable by both history teachers and Niles West students in particular. The record breaking snowfall of 24 inches making normal transportation impossible brought us to a standstill and had to get back into class. The anxiety over the possibility of school children was not to be felt and joy of joy. West's students were blessedly allowed to enjoy an extra week of freedom.

At school the morning search for a snow pattern was a pre-arranged activity. A very simple cast. Most of our mass and parent as victory dance. It seems to work just as well for snow.

SOTHS CELEBRATE "UGLIEST"

Every March week is one of competition between the East Coast radio stations, each of which strives to win the most money for its fund drive and thus to have been crowned as the ugliest. Encouraging the competition is the more positive goal of raising money for a worthy cause; this year's profits have contributed to the $4000 necessary where West Coast begins to equal a radio station. The station's main station, hopefully to be realized some time in the near future will enable those interested to participate and thus even experience the areas of both mechanical operation and actual broadcasting.

THE STAGE SET FOR THE PLAY

The spring musical play was presented Friday, April 7 and Saturday, April 8. Based on the novel by Charles Dickens, Oliver Twist, the play moved through the life of a spirited orphan portrayed by freshman Terry Weidberg. Oliver became "educated" through his acquaintance with the unique Fagin, played by senior Murray Moss and junior Chuck Hone. This was a fascinating combination of shrewdness and insightful contemplation.

Also featured were seniors Carl Pearson and Andy Lapins in the role of Nancy. The twelve young members of Fagin's gang contributed to the freshness and vitality of the performance. The stage crew who built the intricate and elaborate revolving set design which highlighted the musical deserves all praise. The total unity of the production of Oliver Twist illustrated with definiteness the unending capacity and flexibility of enthusiastic workers.

SENIORS

Ready to leave, to embark upon a journey into a new kind of life,
The senior has spent four years learning about himself and others
Wiser than when he entered school as a freshman
Surer of his place in the school and in the world.
The senior exudes a confidence which reassures the underclassmen beneath him
He has established a direction.
Gone is the labyrinth of the maze, the topsy-turvy confusion of the high school years
His compass has been fixed

Senior Class. The Great Class. There's so much to do. Continually pushing toward and pulling away from Graduation at the same time. Four years, four fast years, almost to an end. There's so much to remember. There's still so much to do. New ideas—a Barn Dance, Senior Night. Will it work? Who knows? We know—we'll make it work. UNDERCLASSEN

The underclassman
Crawling, groping,
Starting on the path to maturity.
Trying to find a niche in which to fit,
A place in which to grow
A year ended—
A step taken,
An advance made on the road to self-knowledge

The 1966 Varsity football team was one of the most successful to represent Niles West in the last few years. Finishing with a 4-1 record in the Central Suburban League, the team turned in a virtually flawless performance. Its only defeat came in a hard fought battle with Deerfield who eventually ended up leading the league.

The success of the team this season cannot be attributed to a specific strong point. Probably the main reason for its brilliant showing was consistency. This can be seen in the fact that West did place six players on the All-League team. They were Bob Potoker, Burt Perlow, Dan McAvoy, Greg Zera, Bruce Pindras, and Mike Pepper. Jim Morten was selected Honorable Mention. Other standout performers were Donn Simon and Mike Grejbowski who, with many other capable junior players, will form the nucleus of next year's team.

This year's Sophomore football team compiled a record of 2 wins and 3 defeats. Despite this showing, the team did turn in a favorable performance. Having lost the first two league contests by extremely small margins, it finally started the offense rolling. The team standouts were Chuck Lange and Randy Friedman.

The Freshmen A and B teams had records of 1-4 and 2-3 respectively. Despite a rather difficult season the boys still managed to show great spirit and determination at all times.

The 1966-1967 Big Red basketball team turned in one of the most exciting performances in many years. Having started off slowly, the Indians had that never-give-up attitude that brought them within two points and seven seconds of defeating Deerfield for the league crown.

Even though the team finished second with an excellent 6-4 record, they never let anyone down. The determination exhibited by them will be hard to equal. It is very difficult to select one outstanding player, for everyone played an equal role in all of our victories throughout the year. However, we did place two players on the Al. Conference team. They were George Timmings and Al Chapman. These boys along with Bruce Pindras, Mike Pepper, and Paul Gans, composed the starting unit that never gave up.

This year's J.V. was by no means inferior to their varsity counterparts. They turned in a fine 4-3 record in league competition. Coach Schnurr will have some fine material from this year's team to bolster our Varsity next year.

This year's Varsity Swimming team turned in a creditable performance in what has to be termed a difficult season. According to Coach Cajet, West was involved in some of the toughest competition in the state. One highlight of this season was that for the first time West sent three team members to the State Meet. They were Don Cashmore, Mike Pontarelli, and Frank Walther. Cashmore, a sophomore, gave took third place and is expected to be a leading contender in his last two years at West. Other outstanding performers were Ralph Robbins and Barry Fleishman. This year's team did have its troubles, but still shattered five Niles West records.

S. Rochell Conference Champion on Still Rings

VARSITY GYMNASTS

Back Row: b Armour, T. Kushner, Coach Burkel. FIRST ROW: R. Snaders, M. Elvne, D. Gervais, L. Layler, J. Derdiger, S. Rochell, R. Rosengren, A. Nusinow, M. Shapiro, D. Oprea, V. Clauson.

This year's varsity gymnastics team was hampered by a lack of depth which was seen in the teams dual meet record. However, the unusual amount of outstanding individual performers, enabled the team to attain success in larger meets. The team coached by Mr. Burkel finished 2nd in the conference, 4th in the district, and 4th in State competition. Team captain Terry Kushner, Steve Rochell, and Marc Shapiro, were largely responsible for the fine showing this year. If the team had had enough depth to back the boys up, it would have been more successful in dual competition.

Captain Terry Kushner has to be considered the teams main stay, for he participated in four events per meet and was the teams leading scorer. He received first place honors in the conference meet on both the horizontal and parallel bars. In State competition he received fourth place in both the all-around and horizontal bar events. Marc Shapiro also received a first place in the conference on the side horse and capped a most successful season with a fifth place in the State competition. Steve Rochell turned in a completely flawless season being undefeated in 17 consecutive meets. He was conference, district, and State champion in the still rings events. Having won the State championship in his junior year also, Steve is now the only two-time State champion in Niles West's history.

WRESTLING

The wrestling team had a most successful season with seven wins and three losses. High points of the year were the first place finish in the Niles Township Triangular meet and the second place finish at the Prospect tournament. Two boys, captain Mark Yohanna and John Beutler, took firsts in district, Terry Weiss took a second, and Larry Zeman a third. John Beutler was a champion at Sectionals and Mark Yohanna took a third place finish. Both boys were selected all-conference as each won twenty matches, an excellent distinction. Honorable mentions for all conference were Terry Weiss and Jeff Kramer. "Great," was Coach Porter's remark.

The Junior Varsity, under Coach Henrieli, compiled an overall record of three wins and five losses and a league record of 2-3. Outstanding performances were made by Tom Cary, Bud Glassberg, Al Greenberg, Bruce Mulin, and John Kramer.

BONA FORTUNA

Mrs. Schwab

Upon Mrs. Schwab's retirement, after twenty nine years of service in this community, the students of Niles West are losing not only a fine teacher but a very dear friend as well.

Mrs. Schwab is a person of warmth and compassion, a woman whose interest in life and people is constant and enthusiastic. Her efforts in behalf of Latin Club, Unicef, and homecoming reveal an involved personality that has always been an inspiration to those around her. Her former students often come back to visit and always receive a most cordial welcome.

In teaching, Mrs. Schwab's philosophy of education involves the individual's total development, his entire expression as a student. She welcomes discussion and encourages her students to relate their experiences and observations to the subject matter. Because of this her lessons are alive and the Latin students find their ancient study enjoyable and enlightening.

Niles West will miss Mrs. Schwab's warmth and understanding and wishes her bona fortuna in all that she does.

Vale, Mrs. Schwab

This year in
